

What is freedom?

Freedom is what I have, and you do not

Then my lack of freedom will define me

You will never be free, unless you do as I have done

But I am the one who can leave this place, while you are stuck here

Can't you see how your strings constrain you?

Puppet or man – it is I who am free

Your strings may slacken, but they still bind you.

Deluded man! You are the prisoner – it is you who is not free

I will soon be gone, but you will remain here, controlled by your strings

Lack of ties

Is lack of harmony

Freedom

Is protest

Freedom

Is comfort

Freedom

Is cutting the strings

Freedom

Is power

Freedom is what I have, and you do not

What is freedom?
